2.- Open the following link to read “Reglamento” carefully: <http://bit.ly/Reglamento-SWY2018>

3.- Fill your ONLINE application form with your personal data, abilities, completed essay and video in the next URL: <http://bit.ly/SMAApplication-SWY2018>

- If you want to review the questions that you will have to answer in the online application form beforehand, you can find them here: <http://bit.ly/AppExample-SWY2018>
- In order to avoid any conflicts with filling out your application, be advised that BEFORE starting it, it is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED to have your essay and video’s link ready to paste it, as part of your online application form, when required.
- As part of your online application form, you will have to submit a video, you can review the video guidelines in this link: <http://bit.ly/Videoguidelines-SWY2018>
- To avoid any problems with your online application, please abstain from interrupting it and resuming later on. If your application is duplicated it will be automatically dismissed. It is also advisable to NOT fill your application from a mobile device because sometimes it does not work properly.
- Note that there will be no confirmation email that your application has been received. The way to confirm that it has been received correctly is through the “Thank you” message that you will see on your screen once you finished your online application.

4.- Once the deadline (Monday July 7th 2017, 11.55pm GMT -05:00 Mexico City Time), or the number of candidates (1,500 candidates) is reached, the application form will be closed and the instructions for the next stage of the process as well as the names of the selected participants will be posted in the websites of the Japanese Embassy, IMJUVE and SWYAA México, as well as in SWYAA Méxicos' facebook fanpage. This will happen on Saturday, July 31st, 2017 at the latest.

5.- The next step is the written examinations in your selected venue on Friday, August 11th 2017 from 7:30 a.m., and this will last, most likely, for the entire day.

6.- If you are among the selected participants, right after the exams, you will be required to participate in outdoor group activities and volunteering activities in your venue for the whole Saturday and Sunday (12th and 13th of August). This is the next stage in the selection process. Specific instructions will be given for these activities.

7.- The finalists will be asked to apply psychometric exams and to attend the camp in Mexico City, where interviews will be developed by SWY former participants and the National Leader (SWYAA Mexico) on Saturday August 26th and Sunday August 27st 2017. Specific dates and instructions for each finalist will be given prior to the event.

8.- The dates and times shown are most likely the final ones but they could be modified by the Organizing Committee at any given time.

9.- If you have further questions, please check our FAQ in this link: <http://bit.ly/FAQs-SWY2018>

10.- Should any conflict arise in any respect, it will be analyzed and handled by the Organizing Committee and the decision resulting will be final.
